A G T A
SPECTRUM
A W A R D S™

American Gem Trade Association

Since its inception in 1981, AGTA's Membership has grown to over 1,100 Members representing the leading colored gemstone and cultured pearl wholesalers, industry professionals, colored diamond dealers, estate jewelers, manufacturers and retailers in the United States and Canada. AGTA Members agree to the disclosure of gemstone enhancements on all commercial documents and to abide by the Association's Code of Ethics and Principles of Fair Business Practice. Annual affirmation of the Code of Ethics, and enforcement by the AGTA, holds an AGTA Member to a stricter disclosure policy than required by the Federal Trade Commission. AGTA is recognized as the authoritative source on natural colored gemstones— The Authority in Color.™

2012 AGTA Spectrum Awards™

The AGTA Spectrum Awards™ competition, created in 1984, honors, recognizes and promotes designers and lapidaries in the United States and Canada whose work utilizes natural colored gemstones and cultured pearls. It is the true contest of workmanship, creativity and innovation, where winners set the standards of excellence for our entire industry.

Through the Spectrum Awards, the American Gem Trade Association has been honoring excellence in jewelry design and lapidary arts for almost three decades. The AGTA Spectrum Awards™ competition is viewed by the industry as a mark of outstanding quality and achievement. Earning a Spectrum Award is regarded as one of the industry's most esteemed honors, and winners of this illustrious award truly define greatness.

2012 AGTA SPECTRUM AWARDS™ JUDGES

Klaus Burgel
Adjunct Faculty, NYU

Born near the southern border of Germany, Burgel received his MFA from the Akademie der Bildenden Künste, Munich, Germany. He currently lives in New York City and teaches at the New York State University (NYU). Prior teaching positions include: Maine College of Art, Rhode Island School of Design, UMass, Dartmouth, California College of Arts, School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, MA; and Parsons School of Design.

Equally at home working in the intimate scale of jewelry as he is with large sculptural installations, Klaus usually begins the process with a series of drawings that he considers to be related, but independent. He has had one person exhibitions and participated in group shows across the US.

Sylvain Chervin
Vice President, Carvin French

Sylvain has been in the jewelry industry for 34 years. He trained and worked as a lapidary in Paris for six years and New York City for ten years. While in New York City, Sylvain also learned the fundamentals of jewelry making and has participated in several jewelry design programs.

He has a formal education in gemology, and is well-versed in diamond grading and jewelry appraisal. For the past 15 years he has learned and worked all aspects of running a high end manufacturing shop. He currently is the Vice President of Carvin French.

Cindy Edelstein
Founder and President, Jeweler's Resource Bureau

Cindy Edelstein is the founder and president of the Jeweler's Resource Bureau, a niche consulting company specializing in the designer sector. She consults to the Nielsen Jewelry Group for the emerging designer pavilions in their Couture and JA NY Shows and owns globalDESIGN, the international showcase of exceptional jewelers. She has written articles about the jewelry design business for many industry publications and consumer magazines.

Cindy has received high honors from the American Jewelry Design Council, the Contemporary Design Group, and the Women's Jewelry Association. She has presented dozens of workshops and is deeply involved in Internet communications for the jewelry business.

Patricia Faber
Co-Owner, Aaron Faber Gallery

Patricia Kiley Faber is co-owner of Aaron Faber Gallery in New York, founded in 1974 to present the work of contemporary studio jewelry artists, a mission that the gallery continues today. Ms. Faber is a graduate gemologist (GIA), a member of the Women's Jewelry Association, Fashion Group International, Jewelers of America, the Society of North American Goldsmiths and President of the American Society of Jewelry Historians.

Ms. Faber and the gallery have been profiled in numerous publications, including Departures, American Craft, and Metalsmith, as well as numerous trade publications, most recently in JCK, National Jeweler and the Rapaport Diamond Report. She is an expert in the field of studio jewelry, and a frequent lecturer on the subject.

Clay Zava
Owner, Zava Master Cuts

Clay Zava, of Zava Master Cuts, is an internationally recognized gem cutter. With over twenty five years of experience, he has worked with a wide variety of gem materials, designing cuts for many Spectrum Award winners and top jewelry designers in the industry.

Starting as a rock hounding hobby with his grandmother, he has developed into one of the best classic cutters in the industry.
