Take the challenge and see how you measure up against the top jewelry designers and lapidarists in the world. Enter the 2013 AGTA Spectrum Awards™.

AGTA SPECTRUM AWARDS™

The AGTA Spectrum Awards™ is the most respected and prestigious design competition in the jewelry industry. Launched in 1984, the AGTA Spectrum Awards™ honors, recognizes and promotes designers whose work utilizes natural colored gemstones and cultured pearls in finished fine jewelry design. In 1991, the AGTA created the Cutting Edge Awards to honor creativity in lapidary arts, including faceted gems and pearls, carvings and objects of art. Both are a true contest of workmanship, creativity and innovation. The Spectrum Awards competition has launched trends, increased visibility for designer jewelry, and inspired great innovation in the use of color and materials.
