Electronic Source Directory Advertising Opportunities

The AGTA Electronic Source Directory makes it easy for gemstone and jewelry professionals to get the information they need to purchase gemstones, jewelry, products, services and jewelry service providers from ethical and reliable suppliers-- AGTA Members.

This is a powerful tool that gives access to a valuable network of fellow gemstone professionals. Directory ads are product and show-based and drive users to your website directly from your ad.

Spotlight your business with an ad in the Electronic Source Directory. There are an array of ad styles and positions.
